The topic of the Speech- Awareness on Consumer Rights

No of participants: 49

Brief Report:--An awareness program arranged by the Department of Political Science of Durgapur Women's College along with the Consumer Forum of Durgapur, Government of West Bengal

Purpose:-To enhance awareness of consumer rights, especially in the age of online transactions, aiming to educate people about their rights.

Description:

The program commenced at 12:30 pm in the college auditorium, drawing the participation of around 49 students. The session was highly interactive. The Consumer Forum of Durgapur distributed informative leaflets on consumer rights among the participants, accompanied by a small refreshment for all attendees. Officially they have given some brochures regarding this topic for distribution among other departments.

Outcome:

The workshop successfully raised awareness among students, fostering a sense of consciousness. Participants gained insights into consumer rights, potentially extending their awareness to those around them. Additionally, they acquired knowledge about the complaint process related to consumer rights.
