Action taken on Feedback system: - 2022-23

ACTION TAKEN based on the response of the ALUMNI-College conducts alumni meet annually & alumni performers present their performance on most of the programs conducted in the college to make them a part of our college. There is an active grievance cell run by efficient experts. Many new laboratory equipment has been bought to carry out successful experiments & practical classes. An electronic library with adequate computers, Wi-Fi & AC facilities has been added. Teachers who are present in college who were once students of our college maintain communication with other alumni frequently for various programs. The syllabus has been reviewed & made skill-oriented & relevant.

ACTION TAKEN based on the response of the TEACHERS-Book lists are gathered from teachers & departments annually. New books for courses that are newly launched have been included in the library. After inclusion of NEP syllabus has been changed slowly to make it more skill oriented & to add moral values at the same time.

ACTION TAKEN based on the response of the STUDENTS- ICT smart rooms with laptop & projector facilities is arranged for teachers to take classes. The answer scripts are evaluated & send to KNU within 15 days of receipt for timely announcement of results. New canteen with moderation in price has been arranged. New sweeper has been appointed to keep the washrooms clean as far as possible with new disposal dustbins to keep the campus clean.

Analysis of Feedback form 2019-20

Keeping in mind the decision regarding obtaining online feedback (which was part of the future plan for the session 2019-2020) from students to reduce paper wastage as well due to the exigencies of the Pandemic situation, the Feedback for the session 2019-2020 was collected online via Google Forms. The questionnaire was prepared in a way so that the students could express their opinion, and propose their suggestions for the betterment of the system of online classes and online examinations. Like the previous session, the students have expressed a high degree of satisfaction regarding the students-teacher interaction and the availability of teachers for guidance and counselling both during College hours and after online classes. Some concerns however, were raised by students regarding internet connectivity issues, and several students have expressed the opinion that comprehensibility of the lessons in offline classes was higher than that of online classes. The students have been able to adapt themselves quite well to the system of online examination as they have expressed a high degree of satisfaction regarding the system of online examination and result publication. They have also expressed the need for better sporting equipment and more support in terms of practice sessions. Cleanliness and overall maintenance of the College premises have been a top priority with the students, and the feedback indicates a need for improvement in this area. The summary of the feedback obtained from the students have been forwarded to the College authority for necessary actions.

Analysis of Feedback form 2018-19

Durgapur Women's College has established a system of obtaining regular feedback from students since 2017. In order to maintain transparency, the feedback system has been kept completely anonymous. For the session 2018-19, students' feedback was obtained from 3rd and 5th semester students (both Honours and Program). The feedback has been taken in both offline and online modes, the physical copies have been preserved by the IQAC, and the submission via Google forms have been Cloud Saved for future reference. The Feedback committee of the College has analysed the response of the students and have noted the following salient points—

There is a high degree of positive response regarding students-teacher interaction and the quality of teaching. The accessibility of the teachers for guidance, informal counselling, and academic support have also been noted with satisfaction by the students. Students have also expressed satisfaction regarding the College library and the laboratories. Some constructive criticisms have been received regarding the College canteen and the overall maintenance and cleanliness of the campus. The observations of the students have been duly forwarded to the College authorities for consideration and improvement. Some students have also pointed out the fact that the lack of permanent full-time faculties in some departments are affecting the teaching-learning process, the feedback has again been forwarded to the College authorities. The IQAC is committed towards resolving the issues faced by the students and would work towards meeting their needs.
