5.1.1.4. College follows some policies regarding non-government student' scholarships and freeships. College sincerely attempts to develop relationships with different fund-providing institutions or companies, so that needy students can get financial help from them during their study period. According to the norms and specifications of those institutions College authority prepares the list of needy and meritorious students consulting the head of the department of each subject and sends the semester-wise list of selected names to the institution for their final approval. A student's scholarship and student's welfare committee has been developed to look after all matters regarding scholarship or financial aid. The information regarding the structure of the committee and it's activities have been provided in the link.
